

ELEVATE FACT SHEET

Q: What is Elevate?

A: Elevate is a modular professional development training class that equips individuals with skills in high demand with employers. The class is for current job-seekers or anyone seeking to differentiate themselves in a competitive job market.

Q: What types of skills will I learn in this class?

A: This class is segmented by three modules. Module one focuses on interpersonal skills, module two concentrates on life management and decision-making skills and the third and final module emphasizes work readiness preparation. Modules are influenced by the “Bring Your A Game To Work” curriculum and “Bridges Out of Poverty” constructs.

Q: What do I have to gain by participating?

A: This class teaches transferrable skills for a lifetime when applied. Employees with these skills are in high demand and upon completion, you will receive a certificate of proficiency that proves your knowledge.

Q: Is there a cost to attend?

A: There is no cost to attend. We actually pay you to participate because your time is valuable.* You may sign up for one or two of the modules, or complete all three. These offerings can be customized to meet your professional development needs.

Q: How do I sign up?

A: Visit our website to see the monthly scheduled classes and fill out the interest form. If you need more information please email Leona Smith at leona@necic-ohio.org or call 419-522-1611 ext. 110. Private and customized training available for groups or employers.

 Payment is only made to participants that successfully complete all three modules in succession.*
